

Senior Cisco Voice Engineer

Continuant has an outstanding opportunity for an experienced Cisco Voice Engineer with 7+ year's experience, to join our team of highly trained engineers and provide support to Fortune 500 companies across the nation.

Responsibilities

- Provide Network engineering support , advice and consultation
- Design and analyze VoIP solutions for customer application
- Design and support Cisco, CME, CUE and UC500 deployments
- Implementation of Cisco IOS and ASA firewall security
- Provide onsite and remote support to ensure 24/7 operation
- Collaborate with other telecom engineers
- Coordinate with customer network staff
- Be available for flexible working schedule including limited travel and 24/7 shift coverage on a rotating basis.

Requirements

- Cisco CCIE, CCVP, CCDA, CCNP, MCSE certifications or equivalent experience
- Experience with Cisco Call manager, Unity and IPCC
- 7+ years consulting experience with Cisco products
- Strong background in a variety of Cisco telephony environments
- Knowledge of TCP/IP, VoIP and WAN networks
- Excellent communication skills
- Customer driven attitude and focus
- Excellent troubleshooting skills
- QoS Expertise

Beneficial Certifications and Training

- Degree in related discipline or relevant technical certifications. A combination of education and experience will be considered
- CCIE
- CCVP, CCDA
- MCSE

Please send resume and cover letter to Sally Jordan at careers@continuant.com .

We offer a competitive salary and benefits package to include medical, dental, 401k(s), profit sharing and a wellness benefit. We encourage and support ongoing training. Paid vacation, holidays and personal days.

Employment is contingent upon background check and drug screen. Continuant is an EOE.